Specific safety measures for participants:

- Recommended clothing: old clothes (non-flammable, cotton and long sleeves), long trousers, hat or cap, cotton neckerchief and trainers.

- Water cannot be thrown.
- Children cannot be on the front row for the correfoc.
- Personal fireworks are not allowed.
- Respect the fire performers, their assistants and the musicians. Do not get in the way.
- Follow any instructions given by the organisers, officers of the law and healthcare personnel.
- If you get burned, go immediately to the healthcare assistance stations (Civil Protection and ambulance).
- Particular care should be taken with the lens in glasses and cameras. They may be damaged by the sparks.

Those taking part in the Nit de Foc are entirely responsible for their own safety and for any accidents that may occur when not following the recommendations provided and prevention measures.

The Local Council accepts no liability whatsoever for any accidents occurring beyond the

Clara Ingold,
Paloma de Parque.

Using anecdotes and
personal experiences told
through comedy, Clara Ingold speaks of the problems of a generation,
her generation, that
impact us all as a society.

The actress combines monologues with musical performances she has composed herself, all
brimming with absurd
humour, irony and self-parody to offer a reflection
on self-sabotage, relationships, aesthetic standards
and what it means to be a woman. Directed by:
Josep Orfila and Clara
Ingold
